Hubbell Fiber Stocking Promo

Get Your Free Fusion Splicer Today!

For a limited time Hubbell is giving away a free fusion splicer to qualified customers who place an order for cable and connectivity. Through partnership with local distribution, the fiber stock package will support ongoing projects and new installations with competitive pricing and lead times. Reach out to your local Hubbell representative today to see if you may qualify.

How it Works

• Contact your local Hubbell Sales Representative to obtain the list of core fiber components in the stock package

• Initial stock order must reach specified threshold to qualify

• Comprehensive training available upon customer request

Terms and Conditions

• Hubbell reserves the right to modify or cancel the offer at any time

• Can not be combined with any other discounts or offers

• Limited time offer
