

RWRC916 and RWRC516 ratcheting cutters

The RWRC916 and RWRC516 ratcheting cutters are being offered as the most ergonomic cutting hand tools for mild and stainless steel wire rope under 9/16" diameter. The designs feature a unique ratcheting mechanism not present in any competitor design which allows the users to easily cut through demanding steel wire rope

Useful Links

Product Information

Wire rope Cut Sheet

Markets & Applications

CM&R

OEM

Utility

Value-added wire and cable manufacturers and distributors

Market-specific

Oil and

Gas

Rigging

Features and Benefits

Comfortable, ergonomic ratcheting hand tools for ease of cutting. Note: Competitor models with compound action have extremely high handle force rendering the tools difficult and dangerous to use

Rapid advance feature quickens the cutting cycle

Blades are made from hardened steel for increased use

Each tool employs an emergency feature to disengage the blades (if required)